

Fantastic Mr. Fox

By Roald Dahl

Summary of the 1-4 chapter of Fantastic Mr. Fox

There were three nasty farmers managing their own farms. In order for Mr. Fox's family to eat, Mr. Fox would creep down in the darkness and went into the farms. He would take the food that Mrs. Fox wanted. Boggis, Bunce, and Bean decided to kill Mr. Fox because they dislike anyone else taking away anything from them. At night, they first tried to shoot Mr. Fox when he went out of his hole, then they tried to digged out Mr. Fox and his family by using shovel. Mr. Fox came up with an idea and asked all the foxes to dig the hole. In the end, the three farmers didn't dig out the foxes.

The character in the story

The three farmers

Boggis

Chicken farmer
Enormously fat

Bunce

Duck and goose farmer
Potbellied and very short

Bean

Turkey-and-apple farmer Thin and cleverest among
the three farmers

Thanks!

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, including icons by Flaticon, and infographics & images by Freepik